

3 Generation Genogram Template: filled-in example

Family Genogram Example with Explanation · a fictional family drawn in GenogramAI · blank version on page 2

The example is the fictional Martin and Rossi families, drawn by the index person Sophie Martin (24) for a family systems course, with every symbol explained: a grandfather who has died, a divorce and remarriage, an adopted son, a miscarriage, and one close and one conflicted relationship.

PEOPLE

- Male (Square) Each man is a square: George, Antonio, David, Tom and Ben.
- Female (Circle) Each woman is a circle: Helen, Maria, Anne, Laura and Sophie.
- Index person (highlighted outline) Sophie, who drew the genogram, has the highlighted outline.
- Deceased (X) The X through George's square shows he died in 2020; 74 inside is his age at death.
- Miscarriage The small black dot between Sophie and Ben is a miscarriage in 2004.

COUPLES

- Marriage A solid line joins a married couple, with the year: George and Helen (m 72), Antonio and Maria (m 75), Laura and Tom (m 15).
- Divorce Two slashes across David and Laura's line show their divorce: married 2000, divorced 2012.
- Widowed The small x on George and Helen's line and "wid 20" show the marriage ended with George's death.

CHILDREN

- Parent-child line Vertical lines drop from a couple line to each child, oldest on the left.
- Adopted child Ben's dotted line and the label "adopted 2007" show he was adopted.

EMOTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS

- Close The double blue line between Sophie and her grandmother Helen means a close relationship.
- Conflict The red double dashed line between David and his sister Anne means conflict.

MEDICAL

- Medical shading A coloured section of a symbol marks a condition, listed in the key: heart disease (George), type 2 diabetes (Maria), depression in recovery (Laura) and anxiety (Ben).
